

James Clayton Photographer

B&W LEGACY FINE ART

“ The Elegance and Beauty of Fashion...”

ABOUT JAMES

James began his career in the early eighties, working in fashion in NY, Chicago, Minneapolis, Las Vegas, LA, San Diego and Milan Italy. Truly his style of photography is noteworthy and unique. While adept at studio work, he now shoots primarily on location, liberating his vision from the constraints of the studio. James' gifted eye mixes and compliments the editorial look, integrating a contextual image within the main image. The location backgrounds themselves are elements that help to define the mood and story of each model's persona, producing the quintessential essence of editorial fashion photography. It's a very rare genius which few photographers have and a flair which James defines artistically in every shoot...
